

Plus quelques autres accidents.

In receiving the letter, a definite proposal formulated before my mind; since with 1st draft I have had news from America which implies a thing will quite so get confidence, & further it has the power more light to make a definite arrangement.

Original notation of letter to

How far about the Net

Dutton

contains all of the standards (from the American)

(In the history of the work done)

Provisional list

are given the following key to the characters

In this: the black dots, the white dots and Anthony Spelling - the standard Fielding the black dots - the standard (arrangement) Metaphorical change: other objects

the quote is - the standard

the quote is - the standard

the quote is - the standard

the quote is - the standard

the quote is - the standard

Plus request on account to receive the letters a definite proposal formulated as of my mind; since with 1st draft I have had been from America which implies to word will greatly so of confidence; & further it has also been more right to make a definite arrangement.

Original set above of letters to New firm about the Nat
Dutton

(In the vicinity of A.C. with George & Herman Haddock)
This gives the following key to the characters
The Head of the Black Lodge, West of Haddock Lord Anthony Baskin - Hon. Edward Fielding
The Head of the Black Lodge, West of Haddock

Plus agitée en accord.
In reply, the letters a definite proposal formulated
as of my mind; since with 1st draft I have had been from America which could be done with ~~great~~ ~~of~~ confidence; & further it has also been more right to make a definite arrangement.

Original out about of letters to New firm about the Net
Dutton
overland care of the Mandates (over the North Sea)

(In the vicinity of A.C. with respect to the main matter)
This gives the following key to the identification the head of the Black Edge. Myself & others Lord Anthony Dutton - Hon. General Fielding John Dutton - Hon. General Fielding

Plus argent en argent In reply to his letters a definite proposal has been made of my mind; since wordy 1st draft I have had news from America which enables to bring all great ~~to~~ of confidence; & further it has also been more light to make a definite arrangement.

Original and above of letter to
New firm about the Nat
Dutton outlined etc of the Mandrake (over or described)

(In the hands of A.C. which says this was the following key to the Mandrakes The head of the Black Lodge, Westwood Lodge had Anthony B. Fielding - son of James Fielding which was the name of the Mandrake great ~~to~~ of confidence; & that she has also ~~been~~ there right to make a different arrangement.

Original and above of letter to

New firm about the N.I.

Dutton

included also by the Standard (as in Moonchild)

(In the vicinity of A. C. Smith's shop for some weeks)

This gives the following key to the characters

The Head of the Black Lodge, Weymouth

Lord Anthony Ashley - Hon. General Fielding Walter Morningstar - Dr. Morrison Methuon - Champ - Allen - Bennett

The guests at - St. Ann's Lodge

At Bristol - A. S. White

Guests - W. S. White

On the most powerful members of the group

the old school - Weymouth

Original old abridgement of [unclear]

Notes from [unclear] about the [unclear] [unclear]

(In the hands of A.C. [unclear] [unclear] [unclear])

This gives the following key to the characters
The head of the Black Lodge: [unclear]

Lord Anthony [unclear] - [unclear] Fielding Wake Morning [unclear] - [unclear] [unclear] Maha [unclear] - [unclear]

The quaker [unclear] - [unclear]
Ar [unclear] - [unclear]

Gal [unclear] - [unclear]

The more powerful [unclear] [unclear]
The old [unclear] - [unclear]

Original and above of letter

New firm about the N. O.
Duttons

(In the hands of A. C. [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] [unclear])

This is the following key to the characters

The head of the Black Lodge. [unclear] [unclear]

Lord Anthony [unclear] - [unclear] [unclear] Fielding Wake Morning [unclear] - [unclear] [unclear] [unclear] Methuon [unclear] - [unclear] [unclear]

The quarts [unclear] - [unclear] [unclear]

At [unclear] - A. E. [unclear]

[unclear] - [unclear] [unclear]

The more powerful [unclear] - [unclear] [unclear]

The [unclear] [unclear] - [unclear]

Alister Crowley is known all over the world as the supreme authority on all matters connected with Magic - a subject in which constantly increasing interest is shown by the public.

He is head of the A. A. the most renowned and the most secret Order of Adepts in the world (The "Rosy Cross" and the "Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn" are only its junior branches) He is also head of the O.T.O. the most important of the quasi-Masonic Orders of Magicians.

He has written more learnedly, profoundly, & voluminously on x C. has in the past shared, Nathan's villainy & smacked his influence

w. looks for personal revenge as well as opposing G. plans for helping M. and his

Dec 21 9 666 to 6016. Thursday 1892

Chap. I

Lydia Gray, a young magician, meets Liza, a fascinating beauty, who is at the center in the story (the incident is thus done with a strong character, Hudson Stovall, Raymond & Miss Kerkham and other well known people) Lydia Gray is the love

Chap. II

Lydia's studies in Paris. Her master, Simon H. a great magician who selects his disciples by psychological analysis (for any thing in fact) hires Liza. They propose to her to be his partner in an magical act of "transference" and her master who is the master of the "art" is the master of "psychic" lessons, with Liza and to "transference" the whole process of "conception" of "God" is the taking place in magical land" which is the "art" of a human nature to "transference" in the "art"

The party is interrupted by an old black head of the story in Paris with a person named (Mr. ^{Trusted} Tomstick known from personal acquaintance) the police

The real object of Liza is to "transference" a part of her head for they have been sent by the black head to "transference" equal power. This volume is Lydia's love of Simon H. there is in Simon the head of black hodge (Macquay Whittier & down from intimate personal acquaintance) just an elemental to Lydia in Lydia. Simon H. destroys her by absorbing it into his own being, an act of love and of

Dec 24 9 66 G. Code. Thursday

Book I

... give ... in ... (...) ...
... and ... (...) ...

Book II

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

... the ... in ... (...) ...

x C. has in the past exposed Mather's villainy & smothered his influence.
N. lusts for personal revenge as well as opposing G's plans by helping Mankind

x C. has in the past refused Mather's villainy & smelted his villain E. looks for personal revenge as well as opposing Mather's helping Mather

Dec 21st 9 666 to Lodge. Thursday
Laguna

Chap. I

Great Gray, a young magician, meets Liza, a passionate beauty. Their love affair is quite in the sense (the detail is taken from the romantic characters, Wisdom, Dorian, Raymond & Miss Rochester and their well known people) God & his people in love

Chap. II

Liza's studies in Paris. Her master Simon H. a great occultist who detects crimes by psychological analysis (the very thing in fact) Liza tells. They perform a ritual to the gods in an magical cap of darkness and luminous. The master Liza is to take advantage of Liza's liaison with Liza and to arrange for the whole process of conception, gestation and the birth process in magical sense. This contains a spirit of a human nature to incarnate in the child.

The study is interrupted by an old Turk head of the fantasy in Paris with a former medicine (M. 7 translated Lorenz from personal acquaintance) The purpose is to that real object of desire is to produce a child of head for they have been sent by the black harts to entertain Liza's power. Their scheme fails

Liza's love of magical attack is in vain the head of black hodge (Macgregor Mather & Lorenz from intimate personal acquaintance) sends an elemental to spy on Liza. Simon H. betrays this by absorbing it into his own being. An act of love instead of

Translated
Tomstick

Isolation

Chap. 16

Sise is forced to return from the dangers to one of the abbots of the Order of St. Benedict. He is the chief abbot of the monastery. To begin with they go over to the abbey on Mountsaints to dinner.

Chap. 17

At dinner we had Anthony Boning, Wake Manning, the Na Malaterra, Phang, the two French and Fielding, Dr. Howard, Livingston, Allan R. the English Buddhist Monk, all drawn from intimate personal association.

Boning tells the story (a fact) of his adventures with a medium from South-eastern Europe.

Chap. 18

She must pass the night in a chapel - once to leave if she will, but not to return if she does so.

Sise is put through an ordeal. She is made to believe that Cyril is unfaithful, and a young girl of the Abbey comes into the chapel where Sise is keeping vigil and complains of being beaten and otherwise ill-treated. She urges Sise to fly. Sise insists on the girl escaping in her place by changing clothes. Sisa thus voluntarily puts on the characteristic robe of the Order. In the morning Sisa is told ~~that~~ ^{having accepted} she has passed through the ordeal, ^{fell to solve another} the girl's complaint ~~being~~ a test of ^{Lisa's} character; she is the first to welcome the new Aspirant to the Order.

Chap. 6

Cyril & Sisa complete their plans and leave Paris but change secretly from the Naples express to a local train for Fontainebleau so as to avoid pursuit.

Meanwhile Mathers, desperate at his defeat and weakened by the absorption of the elemental, plans a ^{decisive} ~~big~~ stroke with one of his subordinates, a quick doctor of the vilest reputation. They drink two bottles of whiskey but remain sober, having transferred ~~its~~ ^{its} intoxicating quality to a 5 franc piece, which the Dr. then gives to the driver of the Naples Express.

- Reprise -

(Anthony & White, W. B. Yeats, described from intimate personal

This causes him to become mad drunk & he wrecks the Express, killing (among others) the Old Turk, who had followed Cyril to try & kill him in the train.

Chap. 7

The lovers reach Posilippo and begin preparations. The invocation of the moon is described in great detail, also the conditions of life in the Abbey.

Chap. 8.

Mathews sends 3 men, Arthwain*, Gates, and the son of the old Turk, head of the Secret Service in France, to Naples, to destroy Cyril and Lisa. Arthwain attempts various black-magical stunts which recede on himself. Gates watches the Abbey from the neighbouring ^{my} capanile. He

* (Anthony & White)

This causes him to become mad drunk & he meets the Express, killing (among others) the Old Turk who had followed Cyril to try & kill him in the train.

Chap. 7

The lower reaches of the Nile and the preparations. The narration of the moon is described in great detail, also the conditions of life in the Abbey.

Chap. 8.

Moderns picks 3 men, [£]Orthodoxy*, Gates, and the son of the Old Turk, head of the ^{OR} Service in France, to Naples, to destroy Cyril and his. ^{Orthodoxy} attempts various black-magical tricks which result himself. Gates watches the Abbey from the night every copy available. He

* (Arthur & White, W. B. Yeates, described from intimate personal acquaintance) trains pigeons to come for food, ^{Then he} and throws the food into the Abbey grounds, thus making a magical link with the inmates. He then irritates the pigeons by ~~blowing red pepper on their eyes~~ thus causing the people of the Abbey to quarrel. The trick is discovered and precautions taken. Gates then drops pigeons with other Abbey folk dis 39 + supporters

Chap. 9

Brother Onofius, the Abbot, does a divination to determine the nature of the attacks. The answer is a ~~fort~~ trump called The Blasted Tower, which refers to the planet Mars. He is puzzled, but eventually discovers ~~that~~ that an actual tower is meant. He thus spots Gates ^{watching} and performs a "magical dance of the Sword". Gates is hypnotized by the flashes, falls from the tower and is killed.

Chap. 10

Sisa has a vision in which the nature of the magical Operation is shown symbolically. Various Egos of the great men of the past, who were born with the lunar influence predominating, try to incarnate as her child.

They fail,

all human influences having been banished by Cybil. Ultimately, a lunar spirit takes the Great Oath by which ^{the natural} immortality ^{of the spirits} is abandoned ^{in order to acquire} humanity - at the price of suffering & death.

Chap. 11

Mathers sends a more powerful sorcerer to replace Gates (Dr. Wynnis Westcott, drawn from m-trinate personal knowledge.) He resolves on a supreme operation in which among other horrors, a goat is sacrificed. The idea is to cause the spirit of Gates to manifest and tell them how he came by his end.

The operation ^{how to invade the Abbey:} succeeds; but the omen is bad. ^(see later on this) Westcott, realizing that he has chosen a false path, repents, and invokes death, which ensues. Arithwain and the Turk are seriously damaged, but do not repent.

Chap. 12

Susa's child is expected in September. Cyril receives a telegram containing the word "August".

^{see later} ^(fiction) Susa has a vision in which she undergoes many adventures in a strange world, her guide being a trinate personal knowledge.) He resolves on a supreme operation in which

, among other horrors, a goat is sacrificed. The idea is to cause the spirit of Gates to manifest and
tell them how he came by his end.
The operation ^{how to invade the Abbey:} succeeds; but the omen is bad. ^(see later on this) Westcott, realizing
that he has chosen a false path,
repents, and invokes death, which
ensues. Arithwain and the Turk
are seriously damaged, but do not repent.

Chap. 12

Susa's child is expected in September. Cyril receives a telegram
containing the word "August".

*(See later for plan
fiction)* Susa has a vision in which she undergoes many adventures in a
strange world, her guide being a curious old woman who finally proposes to her to attend the Witches' Sabbath, which she does. The experience is horrible and Lisa understands that Cyril is the incarnation of evil. In the morning, Cyril recites a poem which describes The Witches' Sabbath from his point of view. Lisa sees that her interpretation was a delusion due to her own infirmity & that Cyril is only a noble and spiritually exalted man.

The old woman quite was really a Sister of the Abbey, deputed to watch over Lisa's spirit in its wanderings. But Lisa is now in a ^{highly} ~~highly~~ ^{disembodied} ~~disembodied~~ ^{spirit} ~~spirit~~ ^{field} ~~field~~

Chap. 13. Mother resolves upon a final abomination. He is assisted by an ^{Crane} old witch of the vilest type and by a quack American Occultist, a renegade priest. Mathers has forced his wife to become a prostitute; but she has become pregnant.

The operation is as follows.
Mrs. Mathers and the Turk renounce their religion, are then baptised under the names of Cyril and Lisa and Dr. Beridge then performs an operation on her.
The idea is to kill her child by sympathetic magic. The operation fails; Beridge kills Mrs. Mathers by accident.

Chap. 14

The spirit of Gates has said that the Possilippo operation can be spoilt by the help of a young man and an old woman. Heather's witch offers to do the job. She takes the Turk to haples. Sisa had at one time had a fancy for him and he is violently in love with her. Cremers, disguised as a peasant woman, gains Sisa's confidence by talking to her from the pathway behind the Abbey, as she talks on the Terrace Sisa is vowed not to go outside on any pretext. Cremers pretends to fall & hurt herself. Sisa thoughtlessly jumps down to help her. Cremers then says ~~that~~ the Turk is ~~half~~ ~~the~~ waiting round the corner and induces her to make a bolt of it. Having broken the letter of her Oath (though from a noble impulse & Lisa is morally powerless Chap. 15 to resist the temptation

S. ^{of 1914} arrives at the Abbey.
The war has broken out and April is appointed Intelligence Officer to General French through Iff's influence. Iff confides with April about the failure of the operation, but April shows him a telegram "Horatii" signifying the birth of 3 boys.
The whole operation with Sisa had been camouflage for a similar ^{beginning months earlier} operation with another woman who had been hidden in safety at the head - quarters of the Order. The Black Klodge had ^{been} wasted their strength by attacking a point which did not matter to Cyril. - ^{Henry} of course he had done his best to delay it.

Chap. 16
Cyril goes to Paris. He divines by magical means - ^{by} putting himself in touch with the will of the ^{flame} of the plan of the German advance.
Gen. Joffre disbelieves him; but he goes to Foch - whom he convinces. Dispositions are therefore made, in the victory of the Marne. Foch gives Cyril all due credit; he is summoned to Paris to receive Chap. 17 the thanks of the President.

Meanwhile, Mathers has caught Bertrac in a plot to depose him from the headship of the Black Lodge; ^{so he has} betrayed him to the Police in respect of a murder ^{- committed long before, the proofs} ~~which he had to prove~~ of the crime being left with Mathers, this must be ~~done~~ in order to qualify for his advancement in the Black Sledge. Cyril happens to pass the guillotine ^{- at the hour of execution.} where Mathers ^{is} in the uniform of a French Colonel, [&] looking on and gloating. Mathers twits him the ^{figure} of the Executioner at about a naples, and threatens him ^{with the same}. Cyril replies that the purity and devotion of Mathers's wife had hitherto kept him from the vengeance of the Gods, which would now destroy him, he having murdered her.

Chap. 18

Mathers plots with the Turk to convey information to the German. Cyril, summoned to Paris after the name finds the by the roadside the 1 Corpse of Mathers, mutilated and labelled "spion", Cyril recognizes that, in a certain mystical sense Mathers is himself, that he has been wrong to fight him; that he should have followed off's plan of Engineering ^{note} by love.

Chap. 19

General rejoicings in the Abbey at Paris. The Turk ^{is there,} he has quarrelled with ^{and} the abandoned Lisa, ^{4 now} has been rescued.

by Simeon Iff, and brought to a sense of his error. Lisa mother of a girl child, has abandoned it to Cremers, who wants it to use in her magick. (The child will grow up with marvelous powers.

This novel was originally meant to be the story of this girl's life. When I asked myself "What about her birth?" I saw that the matter needed ^{elaboration} ~~elaboration~~ ^{and} ~~and~~ ^{it} ~~it~~ ^{has} ~~has~~ ^{required} ~~required~~ this book to describe it

Cyril, leaving the Abbey meets Lisa. ^{she} ~~she~~ ^{begs} ~~begs~~ him to come back to her, but he re-

^{a more fancy,} fuses, turning it is, not his True Will, or hers, ~~and~~ that she must redeem herself by service to humanity. He therefore sends her to join the Red Cross.

Cyril's realization of his true relation with Mother is the experience needed by him for his own spiritual attainment.

[The sequel, should I write it, will deal with the adventures of Lisa's child & the 3 boys of the other woman.] (see notes)

address to Capata

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your postcard of 16 August, asking for instructions about the care of books which you hold (for them to be forwarded to me).

I greatly regret the delay, as also the fact that my movements are still so uncertain that I shall not get able to give you directions when to send it. It is possible that I shall be in Palermo within the next 10 days, in which case I will call at your office, take the box off your hands & settle with you for the charges. Otherwise I must ask you to keep them in your ^{care} ~~charge~~ for a little longer. I am very anxious to get these books & shall certainly not delay to take them over for you at the earliest opportunity.

Some 70 or 80 books of technical construction in various languages and mystical practices.
Like the "Virgin's Voice" of the "Thirty Religions" address to Cefala

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your postcard of 16 August, asking for instruction about the care of books which you hold (for them to be forwarded to me).

I greatly regret the delay as also the fact that my managers are still so uncertain that I could not yet get able to give you directions when to send it. It is possible that I shall be in Palermo within the next 10 days, in which case I will call at your office, take the box of your hand & settle with you for the charge. Otherwise I must ask you to keep the ^{care} ~~charge~~ ^{for a little longer} ~~to face with you again~~. I can say that I am very anxious to get hold of a small quantity not solely to take them over for you at the earliest possible moment.

Some 20 or 30 books of technical construction in various languages and illustrated notices like "L'Alba e la Voce" of the "Famiglia Reale".

address to Cepala

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your postcard of 16 August, asking for instructions about the care of books which you hold (for them to be forwarded to me).

I greatly regret the delay, as also the fact that my messages are still so uncertain that I ^{cannot} ~~cannot~~ ^{yet get} ~~able~~ to give you directions when to send it. It is possible that I shall be in Palermo within the next 70 days, in which case I will call at your office, take the box off your hands & settle with you for the charge. Otherwise I must ask you to keep the ^{care} ~~care~~ ^{of} ~~of~~ ^a ~~a~~ ^{little} ~~little~~ ^{to} ~~to~~ ^{be} ~~be~~ ^{sent} ~~sent~~ ^{to} ~~to~~ ^{you} ~~you~~ ⁱⁿ ~~in~~ ^{the} ~~the ^{next} ~~next ^{few} ~~few ^{days} ~~days~~. I can very ^{well} ~~well~~ ^{understand} ~~understand ^{that} ~~that ^{you} ~~you~~ ^{will} ~~will~~ ^{not} ~~not ^{be} ~~be~~ ^{able} ~~able~~ ^{to} ~~to~~ ^{take} ~~take~~ ^{them} ~~them~~ ^{on} ~~on~~ ^{for} ~~for~~ ^{you} ~~you~~ ^{at} ~~at~~ ^{the} ~~the ^{present} ~~present ^{moment} ~~moment~~.~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

Some 20 or 30 books of technical construction in various languages, and a few treatises on the "Voice" of the "Thirty Martyrs".

address to Capolu

Dear Sirs,

I am in receipt of your postcard of 16 August, asking for instructions about the cases of books which you hold (for them to be forwarded to me).

I greatly regret the delay as also the fact that my movements are still so uncertain that I can as yet get able to give you directions when to send it. It is possible that I shall leave Palermo within the next 10 days, in which case I will call at your office, take the box if you have it & settle with you for the charges. Alternatively I must ask you to keep them in your care for a little longer. I shall write you again. I may say that I am very anxious to get hold of the books & shall certainly not delay to take them over from you at the earliest possible moment.

Some 20 or 30 books of technical instruction in various stages of Mystical Practices.

assured before

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your postcard of 16 August, asking for instructions about the ^{cases} books which you hold (for them to be forwarded to me).

I greatly regret the delay, as also the fact that my resources are ^{still} so uncertain that I ^{cannot} ~~shall~~ ^{not yet} ~~be able~~ to give you directions when to send it. It is possible that I shall be in Palermo within the next 10 days, in which case I will call at your office, take the box off your hands & settle with you for the charges. ^{Otherwise} I must ask you to keep the ^{care} ~~care~~ ^{of} ~~of~~ ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{books} ~~books~~ ^{for a} ~~for a~~ ^{little} ~~little~~ ^{time} ~~time~~ ^{to} ~~to~~ ^{send} ~~send~~ ^{them} ~~them~~ ^{to} ~~to~~ ^{me} ~~me~~ ^{when} ~~when~~ ^{you} ~~you~~ ^{are} ~~are~~ ⁱⁿ ~~in~~ ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{city} ~~city~~ ^{of} ~~of~~ ^{Palermo} ~~Palermo~~. I can say that I am very anxious to get hold of ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{books} ~~books~~ & shall certainly not delay to take them over from you at the earliest possible moment.

Some 20 or 30 books of technical instruction in various languages & physical sciences.

address to Cepher

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your postcard of 16 August, asking for instructions about the care of books which you hold (for them to be forwarded to me).

I greatly regret the delay as also the fact that my resources are still so uncertain that I ^{cannot} ~~am~~ ^{not yet able} ~~am~~ still unable to give you directions when to send it. It is possible that I shall be in Palermo within the next 10 days, in which case I will call at your office, take the box off your hands & settle with you for the charges. Otherwise I must ask you to keep the ^{care} ~~care~~ ^{of} ~~of~~ ^{the} ~~the~~ ^{books} ~~books~~ ^{for a little longer} ~~for a little longer~~ ~~to be sent to you again~~. I may say that I am very anxious to get hold of the books & shall certainly not delay to take them over for you at the earliest possible moment.

Some 20 or 30 books of technical instruction in various stages of Mystical Practices.

(The most sublime & sublime ever recorded -) or Eliphas Levi's Clés des Grands Mystères (translated)

sc sc sc

Mr Crowley's poetry & prose are equally distinguished for the sublimity of their style, the vastness of their knowledge they display, & the intensity of their passion.

In this novel he has described from actual knowledge & experience the aims & methods of modern magicians.

Quando lanciati al monte ed alle turbe L'atra possente verba, e alle cervici Pretosamente curve, e all'onte e all'urbe O sanna certare. "Veni, Vidi, Vici!"

Se nel rovente seno un monte imbelle Cospra, e stocca dal cratere neo Un fuoco sovversivo o una ribelle Negra fumata, grida: "Qui, fig mee!"

Erutta l'Etnae l'immutabil patto Seriva la lava. Ma il boato romba E il ciel debella d'or Titani il fatto.

Schiavo e' il pensiero dei terrestri numi La libertà risorge e la sua tomba Al fragore de tuono va in frantumi.

The plot is itself founded on actual facts, & most of the episodes are taken from his own career.

This novel is certain of an immense success, especially if published this autumn, in 2 View of the recent very wide publicity accorded to the author by the absurd "exposures" of him, & his expulsion of some 1/2 way this Spring - without reason stated, or account brought - and the popularity of his "Review of a Drapery and" where the account of his Abbey in Sicily serves to introduce the public - the scenes & activities of the physical brotherhood which "The Net" describes fully & instrumentally.

Magick and its kindred subjects from any other living writer in both Poetry & Prose.

Chiefly: The Equinox Vol I
10 numbers & Vol II
1 number (the last
now quoted at $70.00)

Worm On Pax

The Winged Beetle

The Bayh in Aquaria

777 (Table of Comparative
Symbolism: a complete key to all systems of Magick, Religion,
Philosophy of all times
& ages) Seppia Seppia (Dictionary of

Magick and its kindred subjects than any other living writer in both Poetry & Prose.

Chiefly: The Equinox Vol I
10 numbers & Vol III
1 number (the last
now quoted at $70 (-))

Worm On Pax

The Winged Beetle

The Bayh... Munkar

777

(Table of Comparative

Symbolism: a complete

Key to all systems of

Magick, Religion, &

Philosophy of all times

& ages

Leffler Leffler (Dictionary of

See Dibalah - Thousands of "sacred" words arranged by their numerical value)

The Psychology of Hasidism

In Palamede the Saracen (Poetic account of the Adventures of Palamedes)

The Book of Lives - a collection of various Mystical Secrets, Aphorisms, etc. etc.

Liber LXV account of the introduction of the Holy Cross (in Spanish prose)

Liber VII - account of the Master of the Temple

(in Spanish)

See Debalah - Thousands of "sacred"
words arranged by their numerical
value)

The Psychology of Hastings

In Palamede the Sarracen (Poetic account of the Adventures of Palamedes)

The Book of Lives - a collection of European Medical Societies, Aphorisms, &c. &c.

Liber LXV account of the introduction of the Holy Cross

(continued in prose)

Liber VII - the history of the

Master of the Temple

(continued)