

You see: this knowledge concerns certain specific foundations of practical magick. And you (with the unerring eye of genius) have spotted already that this "Mans of the Holy Ghost" is in question. But also (with the same nose of the antennae slants) you have spotted it all wrong, & that in every day and way.
You are likely to "get and stick damnation to yourself" if you try any funny business in practice. For though I could write the whole main treatise in less than half a dozen words the right use of it implies a point-of-view as well as an extended knowledge of technical ability in, psychic, etc, etc.

Now just at present the regular apparatus for teaching is out of order. We need a comprehensive scheme of reconstruction.

This implies first of all a concentration of the persons whom I propose to contact with the gradual initiation of others. Therefore, a certain amount of capital. The business is self-supporting once it is started, as the lower grades & new members supply a steady income, & only a few get through the tests to the top.

It is the arranging for adepts.

Lesson for the central initiates to start with that makes the difficulty.
One full initiate in a good centre can take care of his sector from the start.

About your "mother and father" (Why this mission, which is incorrect English unless there is some strong reason for choosing that order? I would like this analyzed.)

Shramelin wants us about these family troubles.

In my own case I simply disaffirmed & ^{Count Vladimir Svaroff} lived under an assumed name. But then I had my own money - (lots of it.)

I do not see anything for you to do but to say plainly and steadily that you are free, white, and 21 " (as they say in the U.S.A.), and that you have bought a hardware business and a stock of matches, & propose setting up in business for yourself next day unless you tender an absolute pledge in the spot that all interference in any matter whatever is barred. By doing this as a matter of principle, not in respect of the rights & wrongs of any particular case, you are bound to win out. The alternative is a somewhat humiliating stem-chase of liberty, dragged out over years with all sorts of unpleasant
