not know. It needs a man on the spot. Of course I will explain the assets to a possible partner. It's a gamble, like all business: but a jolly good one. (ask the rubber people if anything is safe - or the trustees who bought Consols at 110!) You need not recommend ~~a man~~ to do it: just put it to him. You don't seem quite to understand about Metis - Gollwyn. But I hope in a week or so

I have thought of another name, by the way - a very old friend, the Hon. Edward Feilding. I've lost sight of him since my illness.

I do not want to deal direct. I am too great a fool in all business matters, except to plan a general idea. Besides, it is a question of getting in touch with third parties whom I do

Editing. Your suggestions may be very valuable. Only remember that things may look different to you when you're 50. I shouldn't have pressed a lot of that book when I was 25. No wonder I now if the date were 1890. But things have moved since then. You are watching the correct reaction of superstition; don't take these violent outbreaks of "morality" & "religion" for movements of growth.

We can consider business labels when the book is nearly ready.
But I don't advise you to use your name, or any pseudonym in any way. We must have a S. H. Q. member, in fact.

Dear Walter

Yr.

I always thought a regular publication would be best. But don't delay to put the printer to work! You'll be (if anything) in a better position to buy in.

I may decide further to your suggestions (about Henry etc.) when I see the proofs.

Foramun got here just in time to
