What is the sense of talking about my making a "big effort"? What big effort? What is there to do that I am not doing?

You are a little impudent in calling me a "milk" for acting sensibly.

In 1930 I expected to be back in London any day; if I was not able to do so, your defection was at least half the cause of it. That, and it's double game. (By the way, he is now stealing registered letters - I have had to put the authorities in Leipzig on to him. Cora is going back to N.Y. I am writing her to keep in touch with me, so that I can help her promptly when it

Dear Sir,

STORAGE 890/7

We desire to refer you to our letter of January 29th in reference to Storage charges due on 8 Packages for your account, and your letter with remittance for 25.0.0., with promise to remit balance in a few days, and to remind you that we have not received a remittance for the said balance.

NOTE WELL! This means that ^{the} money must absolutely be here by Thursday March 31. at noon.

The muddle + delay (+ halving of the amount arranged) has been dreadful. Cost in actual cash at least R. 100 and may yet cost more. Worse, Bill really broke down: she has behaved most admirably, but she wilted, poor kid: that last day was simply frightful. The point of this remittance is that the cash must be here by noon on March 31 at latest.

I shall go on Tuesday to the branch of the DRESDNER Bank which is near the new flat, and tell them to expect £150 on Thursday. All this has been thought out most carefully, and other arrangements made to dovetail; so please do not try to improve.

Tuesday was my busy day!

Last week General had written to his lawyer a letter of the most foul abuse of Bill & of myself, with absolute detractions about Cepelin & so on; and sent it, "accidentally on purpose" to Stewart!

Well, on Tuesday morning what should I get but a P.C. positively gushing with sympathy & friendliness!

At 10.30 I had a third big polypus out. There are still one or two to be done.

And the day ended by my being attacked by a gang of ruffians almost outside the Café Wien! I fought like hell, but they got me down at last, & I'm rather mussy.

Bill luckily escaped unhurt. I was robbed of my cane & some loose cash.

It is silly to talk of objecting to being blackmailed by circumstances. This happens to every one all the time and it is only your filthy luthouse training at Exton that makes you squeal at every breath of fresh air. Any people - Gods, or Masters, or Captains of Industry - have a right to find out whether a given man is fit for a given job. Don't I know it? I've been through worse things than you can ever imagine, and I dare say I deserved it; but at the worst I didn't resort to any cowardly expedients.

Now, it is squarely up to you to take a manly attitude at last. Borrow what you can to carry on till August, bring in your writ, and come to learn the austerity of the adepts.

As long as you try to play both ends against the middle you stay in the Hamilton class.

The Work is all, & the rest Nothing: your efforts to value in percent ages are grotesque.

A.C. Business Proposal

A syndicate to be formed of A.C., G.I.V., & one or more other persons.

The basis of this is that G.I.V. is able to say "I am putting all my own money into it - & that at great sentimental cost: otherwise it's just a 'touch', & impresses nobody. Yes re Rose. I enclose letter. If you can get the £50 at once, say by Tuesday to reach me Wed. say it will probably postpone the cross for a month. But £50 has simply got to come from some source.
The trouble now is also health. Both Aubinsky & Elter say I'm for the Abbey in very short order unless things are done at to fight against these poeta-intoxications.

(Dr Houch has just my thought to Rosenfeld about

Bill is better all round. I saw Niginsky myself; a good man, Na are you right in supposing that by any means the Gods will let you out. It is true that Abraham spied a ram caught in the thicket by its horns, but not until he had tried Isaac on the altar, and - raised the knife to slay his son. It is your eternal dodging that won't do.

You must do as I said: Borrow from Jels to carry on in August, bring in your writ, and come here to take a special training. It is no sense my giving you the Operator when you are still so clearly unfitted to perform it. It would be simply your destruction. If you had only gone far enough to know a little about Abramic demons, you would understand better. no more money - business.

The bacillic infection of the scalp has now practically disappeared; it only required some 4 weeks' continuous treatment, and this is the first time in the two years that it has lasted that I have been able to look after it.

Business note.

It appears to me senseless that you shall

- (1) try to interest a man in the production of a Book
- (2) secure (a) the destruction of the documents on which that Book is to be founded
- (b) the death of the only man capable of interpreting those documents, and filling in my lacunae.

Magical note. Abramelin (on sole text - look on the Secret Magick) specifically wants the Aspirant that his family will offer the Operation in every way possible. It is therefore a primary condition of attainment of this particular Operation to deal frankly & finally with the family - until success is achieved. This is harder for you than it was for me because of the nature of the two cases. That is why the insistence is greater.
