

00050

γ_c

7

[Faint handwritten notes, possibly "D. 9 / au low"]

Netherwood
Ridge
Hastings

Dec 18

12-10-0
Netherwood
1/4

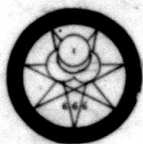

Dear Gerald

93

I am sick at not having heard from you for so long - I hope all is well?

I was violently reminded of you yesterday - reading "Eothien". Hufake says that the famous Lady Master Stanhope wrote of Lord Hardwick as "the most kindly-hearted man existing - a most manly, fine character". He comes from a good breed - all the 9s excellent, with ancient French blood in their veins. She contrasted modern French aristocracy - much to their discomfiture.

Netherwood
Ridge
Hastings

Jan 2

Dear Gerald

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

So many thanks for your marvellous New Year's Present!

What charming personality!
And how perfect the sympathy, understanding and consideration did she
show to me!

These days I am liable to exhaustion,
and I had to pull myself together

Wetherwood
Ridgely
Hastings

Dec 18
Vol 12-10-0
No acknowledgment
1/17

Dear Gerald
93

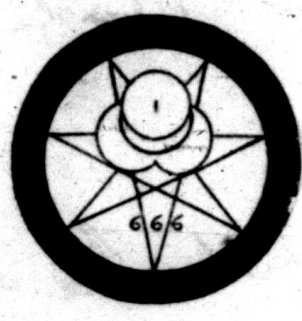

I am sad at not having heard from you for so long - I hope all is well?

I was violently reminded of you yesterday - reading "Eothen". Miss Lake says that the famous Lady Hester Stanhope wrote of Lord Hardwicke as "the most kindly-hearted man existing - a most manly, firm character". He comes from a good breed - all the 7th are excellent, with ancient French blood in their veins. She contrasted modern French aristocracy - much to their disparagement.

ment

much

Netherwood
The Ridge
Hastings

Jan 2

Dear Gerald

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole
of the Law.

So many thanks for your marvellous New Year's Present!

Professor Butler

What charming personality!
And how perfect the sympathy, understanding and consideration did she
show to me!

These days I am liable to exhaustion,
and I had to pull myself together

Netherwood
The Ridge
Hastings

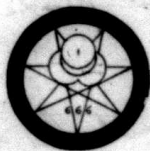

Dec 28
1893
1/14

Dear Gerald
93

I am sad at not having heard from you for so long - I hope all is well?

I was vividly reminded of you yesterday - reading "Eothen". Winifred says that the famous Lady Hester Stanhope ^{wrote} spoke of Lord Hardwicke as "the most kindly-hearted man existing - a most manly, firm character". He comes from a good breed - all the 7th & 8th excellent, with ancient French blood in their veins. She contrasted modern French aristocracy - much to their disparagement.

Netherwood
The Ridge
Hastings

Jan 2

Dear Gerald

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole
of the Law.

So many thanks for your marvellous New Year's Present!

What charming ^{superior} personality!
And how perfect the sympathy, understanding and consideration did she
show to me!

These days I am liable to exhaustion,
and I had to pull myself together.

Last time I saw you, you said I might ask your help if I was in a real hole. Well, I don't think I'm in a hole, but I don't know what R.A. is going to cost, and can't even guess what R.A. is going to cost. There have been so many alterations & additions since the original estimate. So, if you can possibly manage it, come to the rescue! I'm sure a permanent invalid these days and exceedingly active depressed. So, in the name of our old friendship —

93 23
93 Yours as ever

R. Foster

me; but I hope I did not disappoint her.

One very remarkable discovery she made by chance. In Cagliostro's "Letter to the people of Paris" which I have never read, he gives a list of the people that had injured him, and the stickiness of their various finishes. Exactly as in my "Thumbs Up!" (Ed. perine)

I am now trying to catch up with my mail after the Xmas outrage; so a reminder!

"Love is the law, love under will,

Yours ever J. C. Foster

Happy New Year to yourself, Angela and the offspring! R.F.

Last time I saw you, you said I might ask your help if I was in a real hole. Well the debt to bill is now $248! and I don't know and can't even guess what RLA is going to cost.
There have been so many alterations & additions since the original estimate. So, if you can possibly manage it, come to the rescue!

I'm now a less a permanent invalid these days and accordingly rather depressed. So, in the name of our old friendship —

93 93

93

Yours as ever

Robert

... me; but I hope I did not disappoint her.

One very remarkable discovery she made by chance. In Cayrol's "Let the an people sing" which I have never read, he gives a list of the people that had injured him, and the stickiness of their various finishes. Exactly as in my "Thumbs Up!" (Ed. perine.)

I am now trying to catch up with my mail after the Xmas outrage; so à vive deerci!

Love is the law, love under will,

Yours ever J. C. Carter

Happy New Year to yourself, Angelina and the offspring! P.S.

Netherwood,

The Ridge, Hastings.

9. 5. 47

Dear Gerald,

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Thanks for your note and the book, which I return with comment as requested. I am afraid it is not very favourable.

I am glad you enjoyed your short stay down here and wish it had been longer. You cannot imagine how much it meant to me.

This week I have had Dr. Gardner, of 47 Ridgemont Gardens, Torrington Place, W.C.1 here. I would be grateful if you would send to him one of the 4 copies of The Equinox of the Gods, which he has purchased. There is no sense in sending it on a double journey.

I am sorry that your treasures have been depleted in the way you indicate. I think I had better have Vol. VII, it might come in useful, though I think the price is a little high.

I would be very grateful if you would send to me :-
Rodin Rime, one copy of Thumbs Up, and one copy of Lectures on Yoga,
The Open Letter to Beaverbrook, A Legend; that, I think, is all.

I am glad they admired the wallet. I hope Angela was equally pleased with the Candies.

Love is the law, love under will,

Yours fraternally,

Aleister

P.S. It is now many years since you made any substantial contribution to the Great Work. I am really anxious to get MSS published before I die. Each book averages £250 for 500 copies. I have no other expenses, but board & lodging - as you saw, magic! - but printing. So, if you abundance

Netherwood,

The Ridge, Hastings.

9. 5. 47

Dear Gerald,

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Thanks for your note and the book, which I return with comment as requested. I am afraid it is not very favourable.

I am glad you enjoyed your short stay down here and wish it had been longer. You cannot imagine how much it meant to me.

This week I have had Dr. Gardner, of 47 Ridgemont Gardens, Torrington Place, W.C.1 here. I would be grateful if you would send to him one of the 4 copies of The Equinox of the Gods, which he has purchased. There is no sense in sending it on a double journey.

I am sorry that your treasures have been depleted in the way you indicate. I think I had better have Vol. VII, it might come in useful, though I think the price is a little high.

I would be very grateful if you would send to me :-
Rodin Rime, one copy of Thumbs Up, and one copy of Lectures on Yoga,
The Open Letter to Beaverbrook, A Legend; that, I think, is all.

I am glad they admired the wallet. I hope Angela was equally pleased with the Candies.

Love is the law, love under will,

Yours fraternally,

Walter

P.S. It is now many years since you made any substantial contribution to the Great Work. I am really anxious to get MSS published before I die. Each book averages £250 for 500 copies. I have no other expenses, but board & lodging - as you saw, magic! - but printing. So, if you abundance

Netherwood,

The Ridge, Hastings.

9. 5. 47

Dear Gerald,

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Thanks for your note and the book; which I return with comment as requested. I am afraid it is not very favourable.

I am glad you enjoyed your short stay down here and wish it had been longer. You cannot imagine how much it meant to me.

This week I have had Dr. Gardner, of 47 Ridgmont Gardens, Torrington Place, W.C.1 here. I would be grateful if you would send to him one of the 4 copies of The Equinox of the Gods, which he has purchased. There is no sense in sending it on a double journey.

I am sorry that your treasures have been depleted in the way you indicate. I think I had better have Vol. VII, it might come in useful, though I think the price is a little high.

I would be very grateful if you would send to me :- Rodin-Rime, one copy of Thumbs Up, and one copy of Lectures on Yoga, The Open Letter to Beaverbrook, A Legend; that, I think, is all.

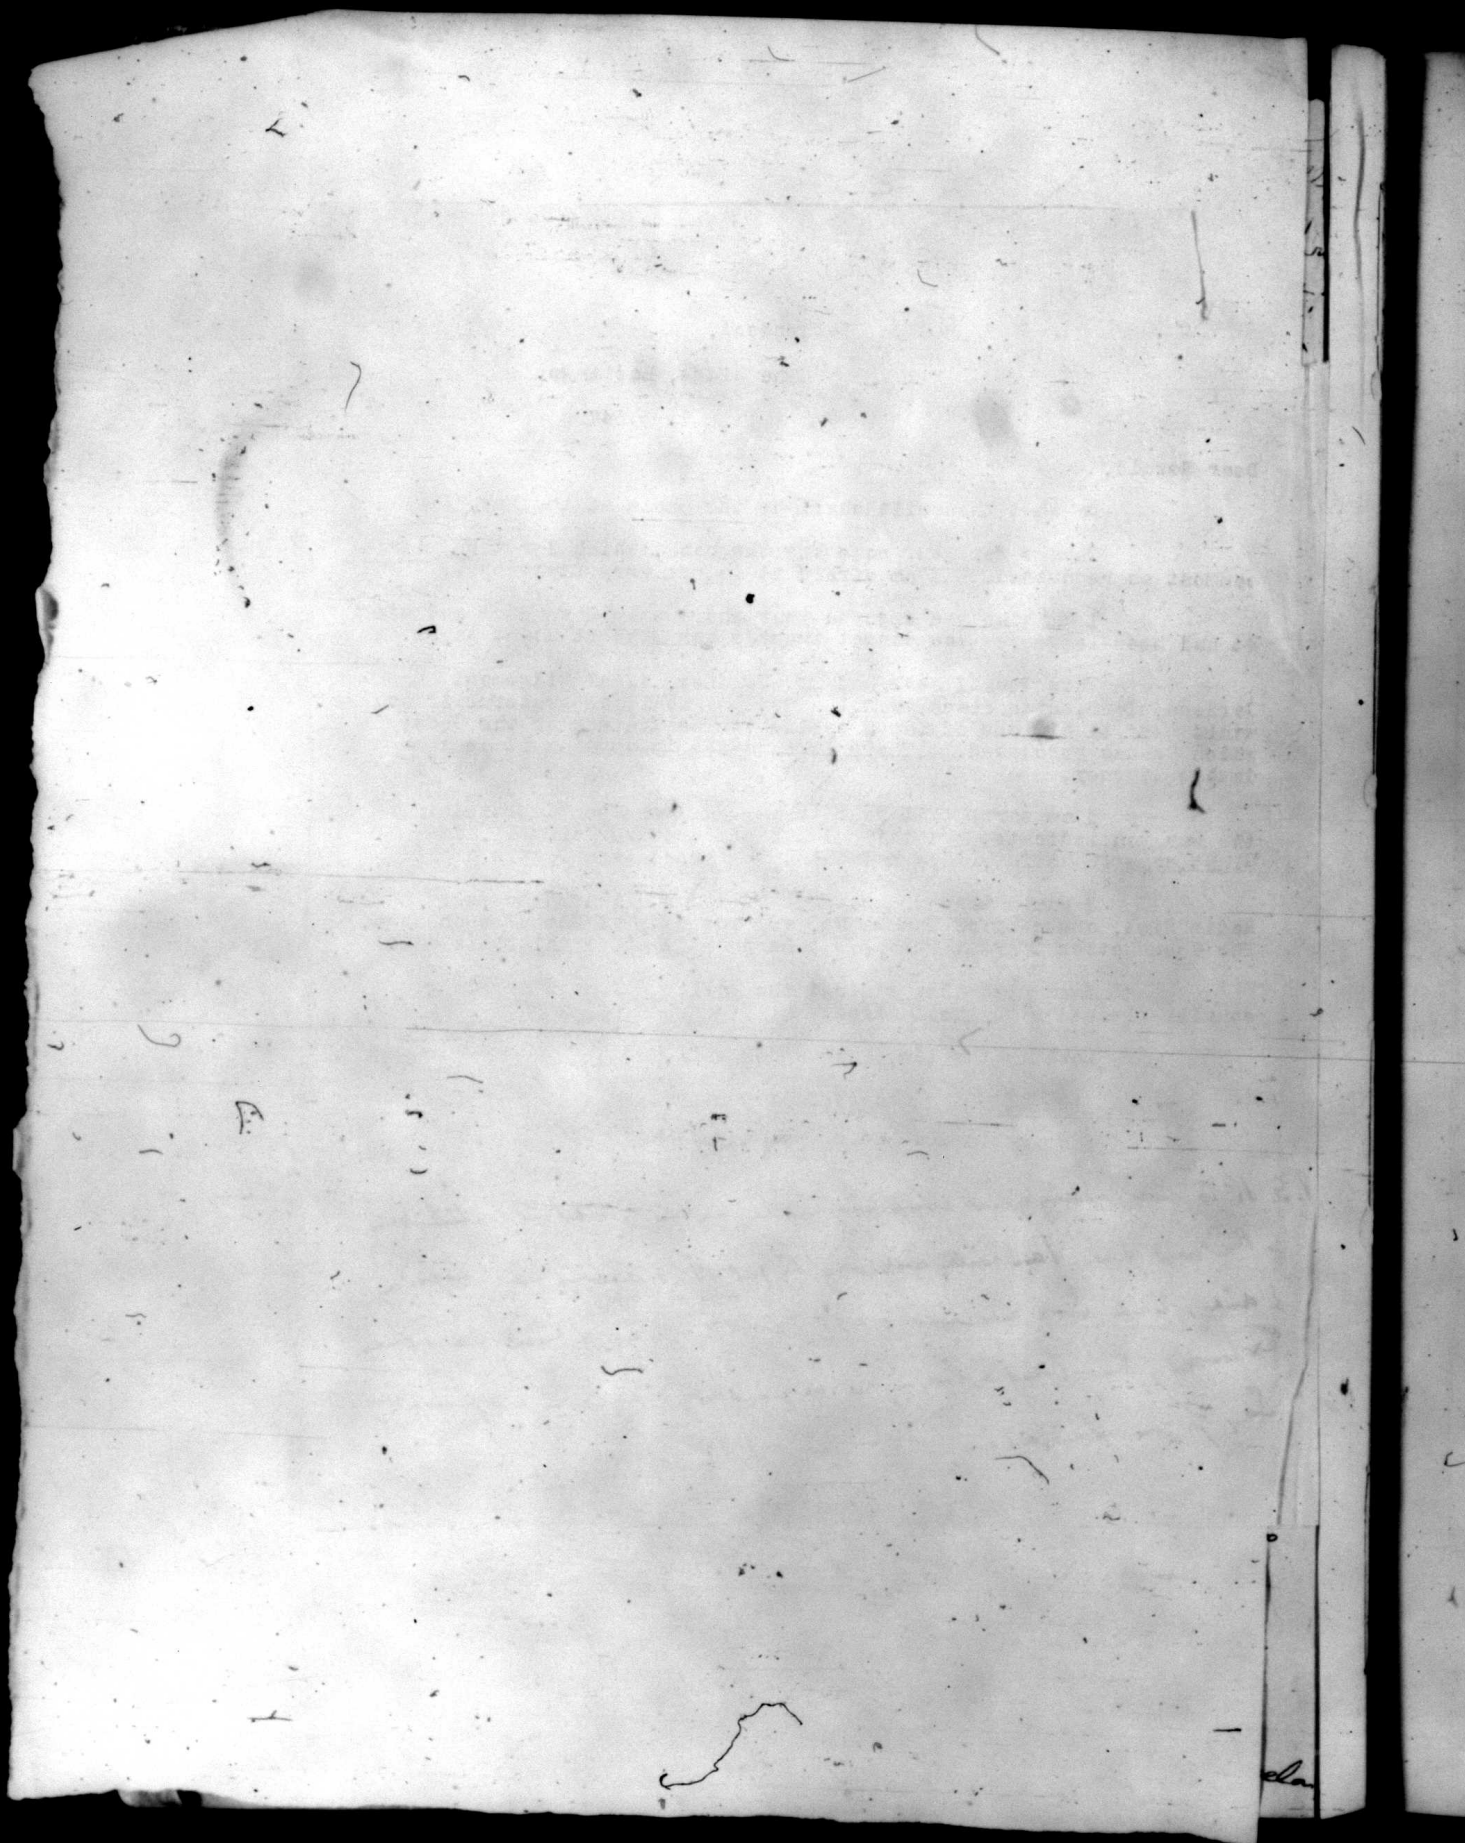

I am glad they admired the wallet. I hope Angela was equally pleased with the Candies.

Love is the law, love under will,

Yours fraternally,

Alister

P.S. It is now many years since you made any substantial contribution to the Great Work. I am really anxious to get MSS published before I die. Each book averages £250 for 500 copies. I have no other expenses, but board & lodging - as you saw, meagre! - but printing. So, if you abundance

Dear Gerald,

23 May 67

34

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Thanks very much. I got the watch back safely and unexpectedly soon. The man did not send his name and address or a bill. Please let me know the damage and I will send you the money. Love is the law, love under will.

Yours as ever,

Olester

"Netherwood",
The Ridge,
Hastings,
Sussex.

15th July, 1947.

Dear Gerald,

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

I have been ill and overworked, and bearing under the heaps of unexpected visitors, else I should have found time to answer yours of the 22nd May long before now.

I know all those calculations, and notice that you have omitted one large half. I am so familiar with all that sort of thing, and of the difference between can't and won't.

I am also familiar with what happens when you might have done something really worth while, and didn't do it. You will doubtless retort that the beam in my eye is much bigger than the ~~wood~~ in your own, and that, I daresay, is true enough; although for the last 20 years anyhow I think it is fair to say that I have not let my eye move from the target.

/over

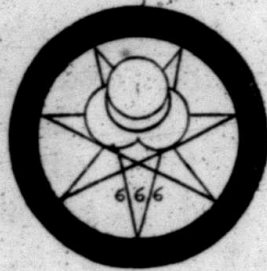

23 May 67
Dear Gerald,

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

Thanks very much. I got the watch back safely and unexpectedly soon. The man did not send his name and address or a bill. Please let me know the damage and I will send you the money. Love is the law, love under will.

Yours as ever,

Olester

"Netherwood",
The Ridge,
Hastings,
Sussex.

15th July, 1947.

Dear Gerald,

Do what thou wilt shall be the whole
of the Law.

I have been ill and overworked, and bearing ^{up} under the heaps of unexpected visitors, else I should have found time to answer yours of the 22nd May long before now.

I know all those calculations, and notice that you have omitted one large half.
I am so familiar with all that sort of thing, and of the difference between can't and won't.

I am also familiar with what happens when you might have done something really worth while, and didn't do it. You will doubtless retort that the beam in my eye is much bigger than the ~~wart~~ in your own, and that, I daresay, is true enough; although for the last 20 years anyhow I think it is fair to say that I have not let my eye move from the target.

/over

immediately, though I must say I am a little disappointed after what you said of him, that his repair should have proved of so temporary a nature. In any case, please hurry him up, because I am terribly dependant upon a watch for arranging my day.

I tried to pick up a cheap second-hand watch in Hastings, but could find nothing less than £5.0.0., which it would have been absurd to spend on so temporary a matter.

Please give my love to Angela and the tribe. a.c.

Of course, in the present instance, there is a personal obligation: a matter which I could not do with the best will in the world, and which you could have done easily enough, and I am sure you are going to be sorry when you realise suddenly that it is too late for you to have done what you should have done in all these years. Possibly lack of imagination has a good deal to do with it.

Anyhow, I shall take 'No' as meaning 'No', and let the matter rest entirely on your shoulders.

Forgive me if I do not write further and more clearly, but I am, in fact, rather knocked down by implacable circumstance.

Love is the law, love under will.

Yours fraternally,

Heister

p.s. I hope to receive the two watches soon. I should not have bothered you with them at all, but I did not know the name of your little Swiss man. However, as things are, I am really most anxious to get them back with the least possible delay. Ask the man to enclose his account and I will discharge it.

immediately, though I must say I am a little disappointed after what you said of him, that his repair should have proved of so temporary a nature. In any case, please hurry him up, because I am terribly dependant upon a watch for arranging my day.

I tried to pick up a cheap second-hand watch in Hastings, but could find nothing less than £5.0.0., which it would have been absurd to spend on so temporary a matter.

Please give my love to Angela and the tribe. a.e.

Of course, in the present instance, there is a personal obligation: a matter which I could not do with the best will in the world, and which you could have done easily enough, and I am sure you are going to be sorry when you realise suddenly that it is too late for you to have done what you should have done in all these years. Possibly lack of imagination has a good deal to do with it.

Anyhow, I shall take 'No' as meaning 'No', and let the matter rest entirely on your shoulders.

Forgive me if I do not write further and more clearly, but I am, in fact, rather knocked down by implacable circumstance.

Love is the law, love under will.

Yours fraternally,

Heister

p.s. I hope to receive the two watches soon. I should not have bothered you with them at all, but I did not know the name of your little Swiss man. However, as things are, I am really most anxious to get them back with the least possible delay. Ask the man to enclose his account and I will discharge it.

die ♂

Dear Gull

93

Quite O.K. Booked you room for 7. What hour do you arrive? Let me know in time, &
I'll have a car to meet you

93 $\frac{93}{93}$

F. L. G.

Heister

die ♂
Dear Gwail

93

Quite O.K. Booked you room for 7. What time do you arrive? Let me know in time, &
I'll have a car to meet you

93 $\frac{13}{13}$

F. by

John

