Illustrissime et Reverendissime Domine, Domine mihi semper colendissime. Etsi nouum et inusitatum officium, munera ordinaria, munitis literarum formulis, ad Principes mittere, et Principum prosequi, et complecti solemus: tamen quoniam celsitudo vestra Reverendissima, et Illustrissima, ita Dominus Dominus meus clementissimus existit, ut non solum Principum, sed omnium virtutum, et bonarum artium Mecoenas, et Patronus existimetur, et sit, ut ego, et omnes mei, ea tenemur, et debemus, ut nihil nisi optimum, et quod maxime Principem decet, ad eam deferamus, ita ego, qui ad Majestatem vestram Illustrissimam, et Reverendissimam, Principem, et Dominum meum clementissimum, ad Principes, et Reges, ad Imperatores, et Caesares, ad Pontificem Maximum, et ad Deum ipsum, ut ad Principem, et Dominum meum clementissimum, et ad Patronum, et Mecoenatem me

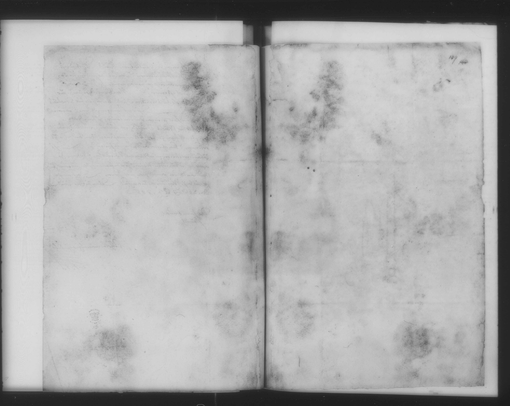
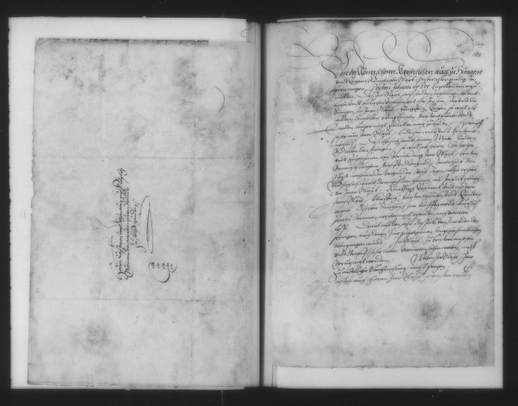
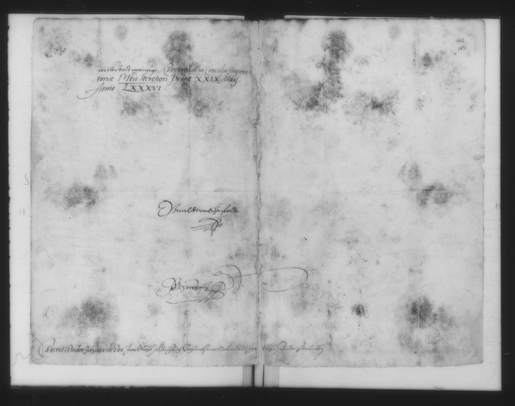
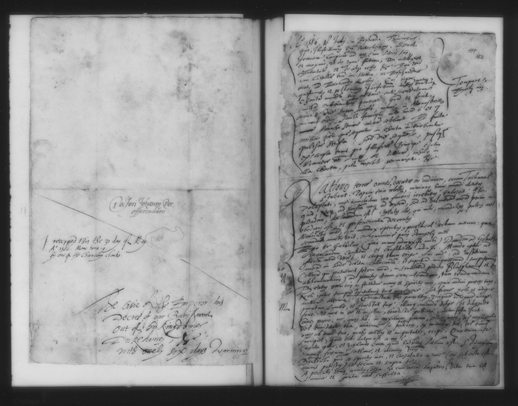
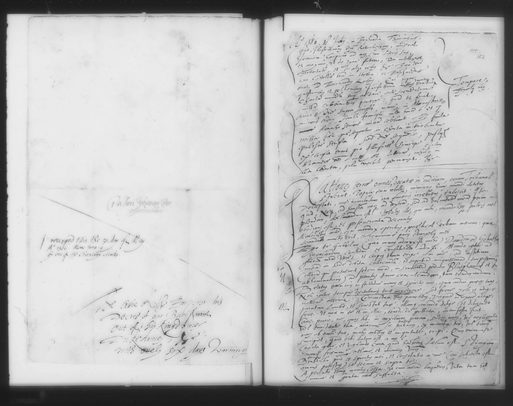
1586 In Nro Bailly secretio exemo nro quod a Cæsare Rud
In Augusto, Recursum formum Rudolphi











And lay our Spiritual Scholemaster, Dr. [illegible] to cure him of Leprosy.

Thus I end.

But although it is truth I do remember and Record that I was desirous of [illegible] to be counted of the house of Christ that is called a pulled by the scripture, and that I am one of the children of David, whereof I was ignorant of the actual Copulation of Joseph with Mary: as I did that, since it was by Act of Parliament that all persons born of Cousin Germans [illegible] Mary Christ was conceived, I was accounted (& reputed) a Virgin. according to the Doctrine of the Holy Ghost and Church: & thereupon I am a Virgin. Virgo enim post and prius: or I under Scripture, Virgo capiet, & Virgo parvula, &c and against many other places of Scripture, & reason I believe I am a Virgin both of Scripture, & reason I find no other &c And also by Scripture I am called by the Angel, Gratia plena, Dominus tecum, &c. & replied admirabil, Spiritus Sanctus superveniet in te, &c.

Note

yet I doubt lawfully that his Holiness, if he [illegible] approve, [illegible] at the least [illegible] and, God be praised I [illegible] keep the promise inviolably, provided.

On Thursday, 17 July Fr. Peter ended his Voyage [illegible] Brussels my Letter to the Nuncio Apostolic, and his Letter to Jo. Capello from Ex, and with my Letter inclosed to the Lord Rosendorp.

And he looked for [illegible] every hour Castell: but yet I left him [illegible] days, to Gulpa. [illegible] for I [illegible] that I had [illegible] back again by Wed day, or Thurs at [illegible].

Post script

Remember that Fr. Peter, the morning before his going, required [illegible] our Letters testimonial, to Standen, of his Fidelity toward [illegible] what needed there (said I) for as much as [illegible] by mine Letters to them, if [illegible] to [illegible] and if he be [illegible] their Conference & Report, may serve abundantly: But our Letters [illegible] have availed us if [illegible] and I take marvellously well [illegible] would [illegible] Letters & Letters as well [illegible] the report. And would also [illegible] Letters [illegible] or [illegible] Letters to Standen [illegible] &c.

But both I observed in him, rather a more prudent [illegible] [illegible] for [illegible] &c, as he [illegible] &c.

Presumptions

1. That [illegible] of our Synod, at the [illegible]
2. That [illegible] God with us
3. That [illegible] & Letters of Authority, [illegible]
4. That the mind of our Council or Oratory is to Deal with the Pope his Nuncio. & [illegible] his duty general, & Parish &c.
5. He feared & [illegible] the Nuncio and the Emperor to be [illegible] of the Decree made against us: &c.

Note

187 to 6

Consider that this may import, that the Decree [illegible] for, but of [illegible] Letters & Papers, and of them that [illegible] to me: and that name I do not affirm surely, and am sure not [illegible] that [illegible] for [illegible] to be [illegible] but I do Remember as a principal fellow or two or [illegible] that [illegible] I cross to be [illegible] of the Decree which [illegible] Letters: which I am assured of by [illegible] or else [illegible] other [illegible] & [illegible] purpose &c. & we [illegible] to be [illegible] under pain [illegible] but a probable, and [illegible] I do [illegible], as to be cut off.

All these points I can not decipher and judge, but refer them to the profound Wisdom and Just Policy of God Almighty and [illegible] for it shall admitted him to be privy of our Actions, and so a Witness to some purposes suffered.

All it is to be [illegible] and Glory [illegible] Amen.
